ROD AND GUN NEWS

HIGH WATER FOR LOCAL ANGLER FROM JULY 15 TO JULY 19.

The time given in the above table is Eastern standard time. Fishing in Jamaica Bay on Sunday Joe Stuhibaum, one of the guides from Boegel's t Canarrie, landed some very big weakfish. The largest was 5's pounds, and besides this ig fellow he had two others of 7's and 6's Stubibsum, one of the guides from Boegel's Stuhlbaum, one of the guidea from Boegel's at Canarrie, landed some very big weakflish. The largeat was Si pounds, and besides this big feliow he had two ethers of Tal and 6½ pounds each. The tides were late last night and the guides were not in it time to set the report. Free Boegel said the conditions were ideal and that no doubt there would be some good catches. There are picnity of fish in the hay and they seem to be pretty well scattered all over and not confined to any one clauned in particular. The tide will run high in Jamaica Bay about dark to-night and this will make an ideal afternoon to fish up to high water.

Still Complaining of the Beam Trawlers.

Soveral fluking boat captains visited the office of the SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD yesterday and they were loud in their complaints against the beam trawlers, and they were anxious to know what was done at the meeting of the Anglers League, called for the purpose of starting a movement to have the trawlers done away with along these shores. The Anglers League did hold a meeting for this purpose, but no report of it was sent to the Rod and Gun department. The Fair Fishing in the Sound Waters.
